NATIONAL NIGHT OUT
TUESDAY, AUGUST 7
6:00pm-9:00pm
MOSS WRIGHT PARK
SHELTER 3

Residents in neighborhoods throughout Goodlettsville are asked to lock their doors, turn on the outside lights
and spend the evening with the Goodlettsville Police Department!
We will be providing food and giving away numerous door prizes from our local businesses. There will also be live entertainment!
National Night Out is designed to: (1) Heighten crime prevention awareness; (2) Generate support for, and participation in, local anti-crime efforts; (3) Strengthen neighborhood spirit and police community partnerships; (4) Send a message to criminals letting them know neighborhoods are organized and fighting back.
Please join us for a great night of fun and fellowship with our community! Questions? Please email Commander Audra Cherry with the Goodlettsville Police Department at acherry@goodlettsville.gov.

Little House on the Prairie Homeschool Program, "Little House in the Big Woods". In this 14 week program, children will learn about Laura Ingalls and her family's joys and struggles as they pioneered the woodlands and prairies of the post-Civil War American frontier. The students will not only read a chapter a week, but also, research other people and events significant to the life of Laura Ingalls. As a literature based unit study, students will study different themes, literature, science, writing and reading comprehension, cooking and frontier living, crafts and post-Civil War American history. Homework will be given after each class. Class size is limited. Reservations required.
