

December 10, 2019

The City of Goodlettsville Transition Plan Includes the following implementation section:

The City starting in 2020 will develop a City Staff task force with employees from the Planning, Administration, Parks, Police, and Public Works Departments. The group will meet quarterly in 2020, 2021, 2022, and twice a year as follows.

The Task Force Group Meetings will include the following items at each meeting:

1. Report on progress of plan implementation
2. Educational session including a section dedicated to a program issue and a section for a facility issue
3. Report from any member of public regarding accessibility issues in the City

The City will search out and invite members of the local accessibility community to attend the group meetings.

The Group will provide an annual report to the City Commission regarding progress of plan implementation.

The City starting with the 2020-2021 budget process will include an annual process for designating funds for the phased improvements and timelines per the Transition Plan for public facility alterations and separately will develop an annual budget line item for public right-of-way improvements per phased recommendations.
